LIFE HELD AS CHEAP AS DIRT. CORONER SAYS

Two Arrests for Fatalities in Grand Central Depot Excavation.

As a preliminary step to his investigation of the numerous deaths in the excavation work of the O'Rourke Connoon in the three-story brick flat-hou ordered the arrest of James Mitchell, they were rescued with difficulty, whi foreman of the gang at work at the the dead body was slo to death in the big hole. Previously he had ordered the police of the East Fiftyfirst street station to arrest John Eldredge, general superintendent of the Pate on the second floor. The flames of the arrests had reached the O'Rourke the kitchen at once. Mrs. Pate ran offices at No. 1 West Thirty-fourth down the stairs screaming and startstreet, and Assistant Superintendent ling the mourners in the flat of the Frank L. PLANS ACCEPTED

Committee Awards $2,000,000 Structure to Design of Architects.

The Plans Committee of the new thentre will report to-day to the Board of Directors that they have awarded the prize in the plan competition to the firm of Carrere & Hastings.

The theatre, which is to cover the block surrounded by Breadway, Central Park West, Sixty-second and Sixty-third streets, will carry in its outward design a suggestion of its purpose.

The building is to be of white stone.

Within the entrance will be a huge stone vostibule, from which a monu mental stricese will lead to an immensa foyer, approached by a great colonnale. The auditorium will contain forty-six boxes in two rows, which have been apportlened to the forty-six founders. The parquet will be spacious, and two galleries will overtop the box tiers. The seating espacity of the house is to be 3,000.

The building is to contain rooms for ballet and chorus practice, a dramatic school, offices and commodious dressing-rooms. On the root will be a palm garden. The basement will be occupied by a restaurant. The cost of the building and furnishings will be $2,000,000. It will be completed in two years.

"B. H. LUCAS" A SUICIDE AT HOTEL IN HARLEM

Said to Have Been a Salesman Who Left Wife and Family After Domestic Trouble.

A n.an who registered on April 28 at Fred Waue's Hotel, No. 2308 Eighth avenue, at One Hundred and Twentyfourth street, as B. H. Lucas, committed suicide last night. His body was found in his room on the third floor to-day with the gas turned on windows and doors closed and cracks stuffed with pieces of paper. The man said little about himself, but Wave inferred from his conversation that he was a salesman at a good salary. Up to the time he went to the hotel he lived with his wife and family at No. 40 Morningside avenue. Domestic troubles caused him to leave home. His wife moved on May 1 and did not leave an address.
